Kiwanis International transportation guidelines:

When transporting youth, the best practice is always at least three people in the vehicle, along with documented approval from a parent or guardian for the transportation arrangements. When both conditions cannot be met, at least one should be. All transportation decisions must be made in accordance with local laws and school policies. Drivers must be 21 years of age or older and pass a Kiwanis International background check.

Key Club members (youth) are not permitted to drive themselves to events or activities without the express and advance permission of the District Administrator and in no case may they drive another youth.
